I. PURPOSE OF THIS COVER NOTICE

This supplemental cover notice is submitted because the challenged identity and capacity associations continue to appear in automated search or AI-generated presentation after prior correction notices. It is intended to make the requested distinction unmistakable and to preserve the record of notice.

For purposes of this notice, “prince ra hotep el,” when presented entirely in lowercase, is asserted by the submitting party as the title/name presentation of the living man. It is not asserted by him to be a pseudonym, AKA, alias, DBA, LLC, trust, estate, or other separate juridical or commercial entity.

The submitting party further asserts that Dave Beano, David Beloved, David Hall, David Jr Hall, and related business, creative, estate, trust, LLC, DBA, or trade-name designations have separate historical or legal capacities that must be evaluated from the source record applicable to each designation. Their appearance in related records does not, standing alone, authorize an automated system to collapse all such capacities into one undifferentiated list of personal aliases.

II. ENTITY AND CAPACITY SEPARATION

The correction requested is not based on typography alone. Capitalization or lowercase presentation may be relevant evidence of the submitting party's intended record convention, but legal identity and entity status ultimately depend on the governing source documents, registrations, contracts, court records, trust instruments, business records, and applicable law.

Accordingly, Google is requested to distinguish, rather than merge:

- the living individual/title presentation asserted as “prince ra hotep el”;
- natural-person names appearing in historical or governmental records;

- trade names, assumed or fictitious business names, stage or professional names, and commercial source identifiers;
- trusts, estates, LLCs, companies, ministries, and other separately documented entities or capacities; and
- representative capacities such as executor, trustee, manager, officer, or authorized representative.

III. NEVADA ASSUMED / FICTITIOUS-NAME LAW

Nevada's NRS Chapter 602 expressly recognizes business conducted under assumed or fictitious names and requires records identifying the natural person, artificial person, general partner, trustee, or other person conducting business under such a name. NRS 602.060 provides that duly certified certificates and register entries are prima facie evidence of the facts stated in them.

That statutory framework supports a record-by-record capacity analysis. A business or trade designation does not automatically establish that every obligation, publication, court role, or property interest associated with that designation is the personal obligation or identity of a natural person. The factual bridge must be shown rather than assumed.

IV. FEDERAL CONSTITUTIONAL AND COLOR-OF-LAW RESERVATIONS

Article VI, Clause 2 of the United States Constitution establishes the Constitution, federal laws made pursuant to it, and treaties made under United States authority as the supreme law of the land within their lawful scope. This notice preserves any Article VI issue only where a particular federal law or treaty actually governs the conduct at issue; Article VI is not invoked as a blanket exemption from generally applicable law.

42 U.S.C. § 1983 may provide a civil remedy where a person acting under color of state law causes a deprivation of rights secured by the Constitution or federal law. Private companies, publishers, search engines, attorneys, and creditors are not transformed into state actors merely by being private participants. Any color-of-law theory requires the necessary factual state-action nexus.

18 U.S.C. § 242 is a federal criminal color-of-law statute. It is preserved only as a potential referral issue if competent evidence establishes willful official deprivation of federally protected rights; this notice does not purport to prosecute a criminal offense or create a private cause of action under § 242.

V. TREATY AND SUPREMACY-CLAUSE RESERVATION

The submitting party preserves reliance on treaties and other federal authorities identified in the enclosed record. Any treaty argument must be applied article-by-article and fact-by-fact to the person, capacity, conduct, and right actually covered. Nothing in this cover notice asserts that a treaty automatically immunizes an individual, trust, business, or property from otherwise applicable federal or state law.

VI. COPYRIGHT, TRADE-NAME AND SOURCE-IDENTIFIER CLARIFICATION

The enclosed record identifies copyright deposits and creative works associated with the relevant names and designations. This notice does not rely on a theory that a bare personal name, title, pseudonym, slogan, or short phrase is itself exclusively protected by copyright. U.S. copyright law protects qualifying original expression, while names and titles standing alone generally are not copyrightable.

Rights in particular works, branding, source identifiers, trademarks where established, contracts, rights of publicity or privacy where applicable, trust or estate property, and other legally recognized interests are separately reserved. Public availability does not authorize false attribution, false endorsement, or an unsupported merger of distinct persons, entities, or capacities.

VII. SPECIFIC GOOGLE CORRECTION REQUEST

PRIVACY AND LIMITED-PERMISSION NOTICE. prince ra hotep el does not grant Google LLC, its automated systems, data aggregators, or other third parties permission to search for, compile, profile, infer, publish, or republish nonpublic information concerning the private man, including private locations, residential addresses, movements, or personal life, except to the extent a particular collection, processing, disclosure, or publication is independently authorized by applicable law. This privacy reservation does not apply to properly identified public-facing business, trust, collection-trust, creative, or commercial capacities that have been intentionally made public, including the applicable Business Trust and Collection Trust records; the artist and brand name Dave Beano; DAVE BEANO DESIGNS clothing and design activities; David Beloved in the public creative capacities of musician, artist, producer, actor, and writer; David Jr Hall Estate Trust; and copyright, trademark, authorship, ownership, or related records intentionally published through the Library of Congress/U.S. Copyright Office, CopyrightDepot, DBNFT.AI, or other authorized repositories. All other private matters remain expressly reserved. Nothing in this notice purports to prohibit indexing or publication that is independently lawful; rather, no consent, license, endorsement, or voluntary waiver of applicable privacy, publicity, contractual, intellectual-property, or other legally protected rights is granted by prince ra hotep el merely because unrelated public-facing records exist.

VII-A. PRIVACY / LIMITED-PERMISSION RESERVATION

Google is requested to review its AI Overview, search-result snippets, entity graph, knowledge associations, indexing, cached material, and other Google-controlled presentation for unsupported identity or capacity mergers. In particular, Google is requested not to present “prince ra hotep el” as a pseudonym, AKA, alias, trust moniker, LLC, or other entity merely because related records contain other names, trade names, businesses, trusts, estates, or creative credits.

Where a source actually uses an AKA, DBA, pseudonym, assumed-name, representative, or other capacity label, Google should attribute that label to the particular source and context rather than converting it into a universal biographical conclusion.

THE REQUESTED REMEDY IS ACCURATE DISAMBIGUATION — NOT DESTRUCTION OR ALTERATION OF AUTHENTIC PUBLIC RECORDS.

VIII. NOTICE, PRESERVATION, AND REQUEST FOR WRITTEN RESPONSE

Google has previously been supplied with correction materials and has communicated concerning third-party source changes, search-result updating, legal-removals processing, and service through its webform. The enclosed documents preserve that chronology. This supplemental notice asks Google to preserve the disputed outputs and correction correspondence, review the newly documented AI/search presentation, and state what corrective or disambiguation action is taken.

If Google believes a particular source affirmatively establishes that “prince ra hotep el” is a pseudonym, AKA, alias, or the same legal person as a separately identified trust, LLC, estate, trade name, or other entity, Google is requested to identify that source and the factual basis for the association so the record can be addressed precisely.

IX. AUTHORITIES PRESERVED

- U.S. Constitution, Article VI, Clauses 2–3, as applicable.
- 42 U.S.C. § 1983, subject to the required state-action and rights-deprivation elements.
- 18 U.S.C. § 242, for governmental enforcement/referral only.
- NRS Chapter 602, including NRS 602.050 and 602.060, concerning assumed/fictitious-name records and evidentiary effect.
- Applicable Nevada constitutional due-process and property protections, where governmental action and the required factual nexus are established.
- Treaty provisions specifically identified and shown to apply to the person, capacity, conduct, and right at issue.
- Applicable trademark, unfair-competition, privacy, publicity, contract, copyright-in-expression, and other legally recognized rights, where their elements are satisfied.

Respectfully submitted,

HOUSE OF JUDAH CONSULAR COURT TRIBUNAL XIII
NOTICE AND MEMORANDUM OF IDENTITY, TRADE-NAME, PARTY-CAPACITY,
PROPERTY, AND COLOR-OF-LAW ISSUES

Misdesignation of Business/Trade Names as Personal “Aliases”; Wrong-Debtor and Wrong-Property Concerns; Constitutional, Statutory, Treaty-Reservation, and Record-Preservation Notice

Record Purpose	Notice, preservation, identity/capacity reconciliation, and demand for documentary explanation
Primary Issue	Use of business, trade, stage, or commercial names as alleged personal aliases without a demonstrated factual/legal basis
Related Concerns	Wrong debtor; wrong party; wrong property; defective pleading/service; execution or levy beyond the judgment debtor

I. PURPOSE AND LIMITED CHARACTER OF THIS NOTICE

This memorandum preserves and presents a specific identity-and-capacity issue: whether a litigant, attorney, court actor, collector, creditor, constable, sheriff, or other participant treated a business name, trade name, stage name, pseudonym, or commercial designation as though it were merely a personal “alias,” and then used that characterization to impose personal liability, obtain judgment, execute process, or reach property without first establishing the identity of the actual obligor and owner.

This document does not declare criminal guilt or independently adjudicate a constitutional or treaty violation. It identifies potentially actionable defects and demands that the underlying pleadings, contracts, service records, judgments, writs, levy records, ownership records, and governmental participation be reconciled before any conclusion is drawn.

II. SOURCE RECORD AND COPYRIGHT CLARIFICATION

The supplied September 9, 2026 copyright notice identifies CopyrightDepot records numbered 00076336-1 and 00068508-1, including a record described as “Ownership of title and name in any spelling” and a business-communication record associated with Prince Ra Hotep El. The same supplied notice expressly states that it does not claim exclusive copyright ownership of facts, names, titles, ideas, concepts, historical information, public records, or other non-copyrighable material.

Accordingly, this memorandum does not make copyright in a name the primary legal theory. Under U.S. Copyright Office guidance, names, titles, business names, pseudonyms, stage names, and short phrases are not protected by copyright merely as names. Copyright may protect qualifying original expression embodied in communications, artwork, designs, photographs, recordings, or other works, but the identity/capacity problem addressed here stands independently of copyright.

III. TRADE NAME IS NOT THE SAME THING AS PERSONAL ALIAS

Nevada law expressly recognizes business conducted under an assumed or fictitious name. NRS Chapter 602 requires a certificate when a person conducts business under an assumed or fictitious name different from the legal name of each person owning an interest. The certificate identifies both the assumed/fictitious name and the natural person, artificial person, partnership, trust, or other owner/operator.

That statutory structure matters. A business designation may identify the name under which a person or entity conducts business, but it does not automatically establish that every obligation associated with that designation is the personal obligation of a natural person. The operative questions are who contracted, in what capacity, what entity or person incurred the obligation, whether any personal guarantee exists, and whose property is legally subject to execution.

IV. WRONG-PARTY / WRONG-DEBTOR / WRONG-PROPERTY ANALYSIS

1. Pleading identity. The complaint and summons should identify the actual defendant and the factual basis for any “a/k/a,” “d/b/a,” trade-name, or alter-ego allegation.
2. Contracting capacity. The underlying agreement should establish whether the signer acted individually, as trustee, officer, manager, proprietor, representative, or on behalf of a separate entity.
3. Liability bridge. If a plaintiff seeks to move from a business obligation to personal liability, the record should disclose the legal and factual basis for that move, including any personal guarantee or other recognized basis.
4. Judgment identity. The judgment should be compared with the complaint, service record, and contract to determine exactly against whom judgment was entered.
5. Execution identity. A writ or levy should not be treated as authority to seize property of a person or entity that is not actually the judgment debtor merely because a trade or business name was characterized as an “alias.”
6. Ownership. Before property is taken, the record should identify the owner of the targeted asset and the legal basis for treating that asset as property of the judgment debtor.

V. NEVADA PROCEDURAL CONSEQUENCES

Nevada Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b) permits relief from a final judgment or order for specified grounds including fraud, misrepresentation or misconduct, and where the judgment is void. Which provision applies depends on the actual docket, service, timing, party identity, and judgment. The existence of a misnomer alone does not automatically void a judgment; the material issue is whether the error affected identity, service, notice, jurisdiction, liability, or execution against a non-debtor.

NRS 602.060 further provides that certified assumed/fictitious-name certificates and register entries are prima facie evidence of the facts stated in them. Such records can therefore be used to test whether a name appearing in litigation was a business designation, who was identified as conducting the business, and whether the litigation caption accurately reflected the relevant legal capacity.

VI. CONSTITUTIONAL AND COLOR-OF-LAW ISSUES

The Nevada Constitution protects acquiring, possessing, and protecting property and provides that no person shall be deprived of life, liberty, or property without due process of law. It also protects against unreasonable searches and seizures and preserves speech and petition rights. If state process was used to take property from a non-debtor, or if a governmental actor knowingly used materially false identity/capacity information to cause a deprivation, those facts may implicate Nevada constitutional protections.

At the federal level, 42 U.S.C. § 1983 provides a civil remedy when a person acting under color of state law causes the deprivation of rights secured by the Constitution or federal law. Private attorneys and creditors are not automatically state actors merely because they litigate in court. State-action analysis is fact-specific. Governmental participation, joint action, or use of state-created seizure procedures can matter, and the Supreme Court’s decision in Lugar v. Edmondson Oil Co. illustrates that the use of state attachment procedures with official participation can present a color-of-state-law question.

18 U.S.C. § 242 is a federal criminal statute concerning willful deprivation of protected rights under color of law. This notice does not purport to prosecute or establish a § 242 offense; criminal charging authority belongs to the government. The statute is identified only as a preservation and referral issue if competent evidence establishes willful official misconduct.

VII. FEDERAL CONSTITUTIONAL RESERVATIONS

The submitting parties preserve applicable First Amendment petition/speech theories, Fourth Amendment seizure theories where governmental seizure is implicated, Fifth Amendment protections to the extent federal actors or federal action are actually involved, and Article VI Supremacy Clause issues where a valid federal law or treaty is shown to govern the particular conduct. No provision is invoked merely by label; each theory requires a factual and legal nexus to the actor and event at issue.

VIII. TREATY RESERVATION - NO AUTOMATIC IMMUNITY CLAIM

The record also preserves reliance on the Treaty of Peace and Friendship between the United States and Morocco. The 1836 treaty is an authentic treaty text in the United States Statutes at Large. This memorandum does not state that the treaty automatically exempts an individual, trust, business, or property located in Nevada from generally applicable Nevada law, nor does it state that the treaty automatically creates immunity from civil process. Any treaty-based claim must identify the particular treaty article, the protected person or capacity, the conduct at issue, and why the provision applies to that conduct. Article VI of the U.S. Constitution makes treaties part of the supreme law only within their lawful scope and application.

IX. RECORD FINDINGS TO BE TESTED

Where the record shows that a business or trade designation was inserted into a caption as “a/k/a” or otherwise treated as a personal alias, the following must be established from competent evidence before that characterization is used to impose liability or reach property:

- the exact legal person or entity alleged to owe the obligation;
- the source document creating the obligation and the capacity in which it was signed;
- the factual basis for each alleged alias, DBA, trade-name, alter-ego, successor, or agency relationship;
- the service of process upon the actual party against whom relief was sought;
- the exact identity of the judgment debtor;
- the ownership of each asset targeted by execution, attachment, restitution, foreclosure, or levy; and
- the identity and role of every governmental officer or private actor participating in the seizure or transfer.

X. DEMAND FOR IDENTITY AND CAPACITY RECONCILIATION

The recipients are requested to preserve and produce, or identify the custodian of, all caption histories, complaints, amended complaints, summonses, proofs of service, contracts, guarantees, DBA/fictitious-name records, entity records, trust records, title records, judgments, writs, levy instructions, execution returns, internal attorney notes, communications with constables/sheriffs/court staff, and electronic audit history reflecting when and why any trade/business name was characterized as a personal alias.

If the record does not establish the asserted identity bridge, the submitting parties demand correction of the record and cessation of any continued reliance on an unsupported alias characterization. If property belonging to a person or entity other than the actual judgment debtor was reached, the recipients are requested to identify the legal authority relied upon and the procedure available for return, release, correction, vacatur, or other appropriate relief.

XI. PRESERVATION OF CLAIMS; NO PREJUDGMENT OF LIABILITY

All claims and defenses are reserved. This notice is intended to force precision: name, entity, capacity, contract, service, judgment, property, and state participation must be proved rather than assumed. It does not convert a private business dispute into a constitutional claim by declaration, and it does not treat a copyright-deposit record as proof of exclusive ownership of a name. It preserves the stronger issue: whether legal process was used against the wrong person, wrong capacity, or wrong property, and whether any governmental participation in that process deprived a protected person or entity of rights without lawful authority.

EXHIBIT - REPRESENTATION, KNOWLEDGE, IDENTITY-NOTICE, AND SOURCE-PROVENANCE MATRIX

HOA • COUNSEL • PROPERTY RECORD • TRADE-NAME / NAME-CHANGE RECORD • LATER REPRESENTATION CHAIN

I. PURPOSE AND EVIDENTIARY LIMIT

This Exhibit organizes the presently documented notice and representation chain concerning the Hotep El identities, the Monica Rene Hall property record, trade-name/name-change records, the Timberlake Street and Landscape Maintenance Association, and later counsel/creditor/foreclosure matters. Its purpose is to identify who demonstrably received or possessed particular information, on what date, through what document, and in what stated capacity. It does not presume that every HOA director, lawyer, lender, servicer, bank, governmental employee, or other actor personally knew every fact known by another person or institution.

II. JANUARY 5, 2021 HOA COUNSEL LETTER - DIRECT NOTICE

The January 5, 2021 letter from John E. Leach of LKG (Leach | Kern | Gruchow | Anderson | Song) states that the firm served as legal counsel for Timberlake Street and Landscape Maintenance Association. The letter is addressed separately to “Princess Emilily Hotep El” and “Prince Ra Hotep El,” and addresses them in the body as “Mr. & Mrs. Hotep El.” It further states that the Association's Board of Directors supplied counsel with a copy of the submitting parties' November 11, 2020 letter addressed to Nevada Community Management, the Association's community-management company.

The same letter states that counsel reviewed Clark County Assessor records and understood the property at 8237 Fawn Brook Court to be owned of record by “Monica Rene Hall.” Counsel then expressly compared that record-owner name against the Hotep El identities and requested documentation showing a conveyance of title. Whatever the correctness of counsel's legal conclusion, the letter is significant evidence that the Association and its counsel were simultaneously dealing with the Hotep El names and the Monica Rene Hall property record by January 5, 2021.

III. DOCUMENTED KNOWLEDGE / NOTICE MATRIX

Date / Source	Actor / Recipient	Stated Capacity	Information Demonstrably in Record	Evidentiary Significance
Nov. 11, 2020 letter (referenced by Jan. 5 letter)	Timberlake HOA Board / Nevada Community Management	HOA Board and community-management company	Hotep El communication existed and was supplied by the Board to HOA counsel.	Supports notice pathway from submitting parties -> management/Board -> counsel. Exact contents should be proved by the Nov. 11 letter itself.
Jan. 5, 2021 LKG letter	John E. Leach / LKG	Expressly states firm serves as legal counsel for Timberlake Street and Landscape Maintenance Association	Addresses Princess Emilily Hotep El and Prince Ra Hotep El; discusses 8237 Fawn Brook Court; compares those identities with Clark County Assessor record naming Monica Rene Hall.	Direct documentary evidence that HOA counsel had both identity presentations before it and was attempting to reconcile them.
Apr. 20, 2020 Ohio SOS certificate/record	Ohio Secretary of State	Government business-record custodian	Trade-name registration for PRINCESS EMILILY HOTEPEL, Document No. 202010803788.	Independent governmental business record predating the Jan. 2021 HOA-counsel letter.
2021 passport/name-change packet	U.S. Department of State / Charleston Passport Center	Federal passport-processing record	Correspondence uses Prince Ra Hotep El and requests certified court order authorizing name change; packet contains Nevada name-change order.	Shows federal possession/processing of identity and name-change documentation; does not by itself prove knowledge by unrelated agencies.
Oct. 7/11, 2022 Ohio SOS record/certificate	Ohio Secretary of State	Government business-record custodian	Trade-name registration associated with SULTAN PRINCE RA HOTEPEL INSURANCE FUNDRAISING, Document	Additional governmental trade-name record; relevant to later capacity reconciliation.

			No. 202228004378.
Later federal / Nevada record-correction materials	Courts / records custodians / publishers identified in the particular filings	Varies by filing	Records distinguish lowercase name/capacity presentations and dispute the “sovereign citizen” characterization.	Supports later notice/preservation chronology only to the extent receipt, filing, or service is independently shown.

IV. HOA BOARD KNOWLEDGE - WHAT MAY BE STATED NOW

Based on the January 5, 2021 letter, the record supports stating that the Association's Board of Directors possessed or received the November 11, 2020 communication sufficiently for the Board to provide a copy to its legal counsel. The record also supports stating that HOA counsel responded using the Hotep El names while discussing the Monica Rene Hall assessor record. The stronger phrase “everyone knew” should be reserved for persons whose individual receipt, participation, email, meeting, signature, service, or other evidence establishes notice.

The submitting parties further state that, except for one member, persons serving on the HOA board were retired law-enforcement, sheriff, police, or constable personnel. That assertion should be paired with the board roster and employment/background records before it is presented as an independently established fact. Prior public-service employment, standing alone, also does not establish that later HOA conduct was governmental action or action under color of law.

V. COUNSEL / REPRESENTATION CHAIN TO BE RECONCILED

The January 5, 2021 document identifies LKG and John E. Leach as HOA counsel at that time. The submitting parties separately identify Aldridge Pite LLP and attorney Richard S. Ehlers as appearing in later records involving foreclosure/property proceedings and other parties, including matters involving lenders or creditors. The representation chain should therefore be proved document by document rather than collapsed into a single relationship.

Law Firm / Attorney	Client or Party Allegedly Represented	Matter / Case	Document Needed to Prove Relationship	Status in This Exhibit
LKG / John E. Leach	Timberlake Street and Landscape Maintenance Association	HOA/property correspondence	January 5, 2021 counsel letter	DOCUMENTED
Aldridge Pite LLP / R. Samuel or Richard S. Ehlers	Federal National Mortgage Association / successors or assigns	Justice Court Case No. 23C006611	Filed temporary-writ/order papers and counsel caption	DOCUMENTED IN EXISTING RECORD; attach exact source
Aldridge Pite LLP / Ehlers	HOA	Any claimed HOA representation	Appearance, engagement letter, correspondence, pleading, notice, or service record	TO BE PROVED BY SOURCE DOCUMENT
Aldridge Pite LLP / Ehlers	Foreclosure trustee / servicer / lender	Foreclosure chain	Recorded notice, trustee correspondence, pleading, engagement/appearance or authenticated communication	TO BE PROVED BY SOURCE DOCUMENT
Aldridge Pite LLP / Ehlers	Ally Bank	Ally-related litigation/collection matter	Filed appearance, pleading, correspondence, docket entry or engagement evidence	TO BE PROVED BY SOURCE DOCUMENT

VI. WHY THE REPRESENTATION CHAIN MATTERS

If the same attorney or law firm is documented as representing different participants at different stages, that fact may be relevant to notice, information flow, conflicts analysis, source provenance, or the chronology of disputed identity/capacity characterizations. It does not, by itself, establish conspiracy, fraud, collusion, an ethical violation, or that confidential information was improperly shared. Those conclusions require the underlying engagements, communications, duties, timing, and applicable conflict rules to be established.

VII. SOURCE-PROVENANCE QUESTIONS FOR EACH ACTOR

For each HOA director, management company, attorney, law firm, lender, servicer, foreclosure participant, bank, court publisher, or governmental custodian appearing in the record, the submitting parties request a source-specific reconciliation: identify the exact name/capacity received; date and method of receipt; source document; persons or systems to whom it was routed; any alias, trade-name, debtor, owner, or party field created from it; any later modification; and the source of any “sovereign citizen” or other disputed identity characterization.

VIII. PRESERVATION

Preserve the November 11, 2020 letter; January 5, 2021 LKG correspondence; HOA board and management communications; attorney-client identity and engagement records to the extent lawfully discoverable and not privileged; nonprivileged routing metadata; court appearances; foreclosure communications; lender/servicer instructions; Ally-related appearances; trade-name/name-change records; docket metadata; and records reflecting creation, transmission, correction, or republication of disputed identity characterizations. No request in this Exhibit seeks privileged communications merely because an attorney appears in the representation chain.

IX. CONCLUSION

The present documentary record already establishes a meaningful notice point: by January 5, 2021, the HOA's counsel expressly used the Hotep El names while simultaneously discussing the Monica Rene Hall assessor record, after receiving the submitting parties' earlier communication through the HOA Board. The next evidentiary step is to map each later representation by Aldridge Pite LLP / Ehlers to the exact client, date, matter, filing, and source document. That approach permits the record to show the pattern, if one exists, without assuming facts that the documents have not yet established.

Re: Timberlake Street and Landscape Maintenance Association

Dear Mr. & Mrs. Hotep El:

Please be advised that this office serves as legal counsel for the Timberlake Street and Landscape Maintenance Association ("Association"). The Association's Board of Directors has provided this office with a copy of your November 11, 2020 letter, addressed to Nevada Community Management, the Association's community management company.

The purpose of your letter is unclear but seems to suggest you are the owners of the property located at 8237 Fawn Brook Court, Las Vegas, Nevada 89149 (the "Property"). However, after reviewing the records of the Clark County Assessor's Office, the Association has determined that you are not the owners of the Property. According to the Clark County Assessor's Office, the Property is owned by Monica Rene Hall. The letter you provided to the Association did not include any documents transferring title to the Property from Ms. Hall to you. Therefore, Ms. Hall remains the owner of record and you are not entitled to any of the rights, powers, and privileges associated with ownership of the Property or membership in the Association.

To the extent that you believe you are the lawful owners of the Property, please provide this office with a copy of the deed conveying title that is fully executed and notarized by Ms. Hall. In the absence of such documentation, the Association will continue to recognize Ms. Hall as the owner of the Property.

Sincerely,

John E. Leach

Subject	Identity association, alleged alias attribution, source provenance, record correction, and continuing Consular Court void-ab-initio determination

I. PURPOSE OF NOTICE

This Notice combines and preserves two related matters within the House of Judah Consular Court record: (1) the asserted false association or conflation of Prince Ra Hotep El with another person, including Yusef Hotep-El, and the disputed attribution of labels or aliases to Prince Ra Hotep El; and (2) the Consular Court's continuing void-ab-initio determination concerning the challenged proceedings identified in its record.

This Notice is intended to preserve identity, source, chronology, capacity, and record-integrity issues and to require the documentary basis for any disputed identity association. It does not represent that a Nevada state court, federal court, Google, or any third-party publisher has adopted the House of Judah Consular Court's determinations.

II. DISTINCT PERSONS - NO UNPROVEN IDENTITY CONFLATION

The submitting parties maintain that Prince Ra Hotep El and Yusef Hotep-El are separate persons. The record shall not treat similarity in words, appellations, spelling, punctuation, hyphenation, search terms, metadata, or automated indexing as proof that the two persons are the same individual.

The submitting parties further maintain that Prince Ra Hotep El is the lawful name used by that individual and that business, trade, stage, commercial, trust, estate, or other capacity names must be identified according to the person or entity to which each actually belongs. A business or trade designation should not be converted into an alleged personal alias without a competent factual and legal basis.

III. DISPUTED SEARCH, COURT-WEBSITE, AND DATABASE ASSOCIATIONS

Where a Google search result, court-indexing page, legal-information website, governmental record, or other database associated Prince Ra Hotep El with Yusef Hotep-El, criminal-history material belonging to another person, or the disputed characterization 'sovereign citizen,' the submitting parties demand identification of the source from which that association originated. The existence and exact presentation of each disputed association shall be established by the preserved screenshot, URL, docket entry, search result, communication, metadata, or other competent exhibit.

IV. SOURCE-PROVENANCE AND AUDIT-TRAIL DEMAND

For every challenged identity association or alias characterization, the responsible recipient or records custodian is requested to identify, to the extent maintained and lawfully producible: the originating source; author or submitting party; originating agency or publisher; date created; date modified; database field or alias field; indexing terms; source URL or docket source; transmission or republication history; correction history; and the identity of any system or recipient to which the characterization was transmitted.

If no competent source establishes that Prince Ra Hotep El is Yusef Hotep-El, or establishes a particular alleged alias or identity relationship, the submitting parties demand segregation and correction of the identities in the applicable records, while preserving the historical audit trail showing what was previously displayed, transmitted, indexed, or recorded.

V. COPYRIGHT / BUSINESS-RECORD DISTINCTION

The supporting copyright-deposit and business-communication materials may be maintained as identity, authorship, chronology, and business-record exhibits. This Notice does not depend upon the proposition that a personal name, title, stage name, or trade name is itself protected by copyright. The principal issue here is attribution: whether one person's identity, criminal history, characterization, or alleged aliases were improperly attributed to another person, and whether business or trade names were incorrectly treated as personal aliases in litigation or public records.

VI. CONSULAR COURT VOID-AB-INITIO DETERMINATION

The House of Judah Consular Court Tribunal XIII determined, within its own proceeding and record, that the challenged proceedings identified in that record were VOID AB INITIO. The Consular Court record states that this determination originated within the Consular Court proceeding and was subsequently filed for notice and record in September 2022 with the Eighth Judicial District Court and the United States District Court for the District of Nevada.

The House of Judah Consular Court therefore continues to preserve and treat proceedings flowing from the challenged acts as void ab initio within its own adjudicative record and procedural position.

VII. EFFECT OF SUBSEQUENT FILING - EXPRESS LIMITATION

The subsequent filing, receipt, docketing, service, or possession of the Consular Court determination by another court or governmental body establishes the notice, filing, service, possession, and chronology reflected by the competent record. It does not, standing alone, establish that the receiving Nevada or federal court authored, adopted, enforced, or independently adjudicated the merits of the Consular Court's void-ab-initio determination.

Accordingly, this Notice does not state that every Nevada or federal judgment has independently been declared void by the receiving courts. It states the narrower and exact record proposition: the House of Judah Consular Court made and continues its own void-ab-initio determination; the determination was later filed and served as reflected in the preserved record; and the Consular Court continues to maintain that position.

VIII. CONNECTION BETWEEN IDENTITY DEFECTS AND THE CHALLENGED PROCEEDINGS

The identity issue is material to the continuing record because a proceeding may depend upon accurate identification of the party, legal capacity, debtor, trust, estate, business, property owner, person served, and person against whom relief or execution is sought. The submitting parties therefore preserve for review whether any false identity association, unsupported alias designation, trade-name conflation, wrong-party designation, or misattribution affected pleading, service, notice, liability, judgment, execution, publication, indexing, or subsequent governmental action.

No causal conclusion is established merely by similarity of names or by the existence of an inaccurate search result. The connection must be tested against the underlying pleadings, service records, judgments, writs, database records, screenshots, audit history, communications, and other competent evidence.

IX. RECORD CORRECTION AND PRESERVATION DEMAND

All recipients are requested to preserve records concerning the disputed identities, alleged aliases, search/indexing terms, court captions, docket metadata, party rosters, classification fields, communications, corrections, removals, and republications. Where an association is unsupported or inaccurate, the submitting parties request correction sufficient to prevent continuing misidentification, together with preservation of the pre-correction record and audit history.

X. FORMAL NOTICE OF CONTINUING POSITION

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the House of Judah Consular Court record continues to distinguish Prince Ra Hotep El from unrelated persons and disputed alias classifications; continues to demand the documentary source for any contrary association; and continues to preserve its previously entered void-ab-initio determination as the Consular Court's own adjudicative and procedural position.

Nothing herein attributes that determination to the Ninth Circuit, the Eighth Judicial District Court, the United States District Court for the District of Nevada, Google, or any other receiving institution unless a separate competent order or record from that institution independently establishes such adoption or adjudication.

XI. PROCEDURAL RELIEF - VACATUR AND QUASHING OF DERIVATIVE PROCESS

Where an independently recognized court judgment or default is challenged as void for lack of jurisdiction, defective service, denial of legally required notice, or another defect rendering the judgment void, the submitting parties preserve the right to file the appropriate procedural motion for relief from judgment, including Rule 60(b)(4) or the applicable state-court equivalent.

The requested relief may include: (1) vacatur of any judgment or default proven void; (2) quashing or recalling writs, executions, levies, restitution orders, garnishments, or other enforcement process whose validity depends upon that void judgment; (3) correction of party, identity, capacity, and debtor records; (4) release or return of property where authorized; and (5) such additional relief as the issuing court has authority to grant.

A voidness determination should be tied to the particular judgment and demonstrated jurisdictional or due-process defect; it should not be presumed solely from an incorrect trade name, disputed alias, or the House of Judah Consular Court's separate void-ab-initio determination. This procedural section therefore preserves the mechanism by which the issuing Nevada or federal court may be asked to address its own judgment while maintaining the separate House of Judah Consular Court record and determination.

XII. RESERVATION

All rights, claims, defenses, remedies, objections, correction requests, preservation demands, and evidentiary positions are reserved. This Notice supplements the existing House of Judah Consular Court record and is intended to preserve rather than mischaracterize the source, scope, or legal effect of any determination contained therein.

I. PURPOSE AND LIMITED CHARACTER

This Revised Exhibit preserves documentary evidence showing that identity, name-change, trade-name, appellation, and capacity information existed in multiple records before the later identity-characterization dispute. It is offered to establish the existence, accessibility, transmission, receipt, custody, and chronology shown by the particular source documents. It does not presume that every agency employee personally reviewed every record, that one agency's possession automatically constituted another agency's knowledge, or that capitalization alone creates a separate legal person.

II. SECRETARY OF STATE TRADE-NAME RECORDS

The Ohio Secretary of State certificate dated April 20, 2020 states that the Secretary of State had custody of business records for PRINCESS EMILILY HOTE EL and that those records showed a TRADE NAME REGISTRATION, Document No. 202010803788. A separate Ohio Secretary of State certificate dated October 11, 2022 states that the Secretary had custody of business records for SULTAN PRINCE RA HOTE EL INSURANCE FUNDRAISING and records a TRADE NAME REGISTRATION, Document No. 202228004378, effective October 7, 2022. These are governmental business-record certificates and are preserved for the exact propositions appearing on their face.

III. U.S. DEPARTMENT OF STATE IDENTITY AND NAME-CHANGE RECORD

The preserved U.S. Department of State packet includes a Certification of Identity form and Charleston Passport Center correspondence addressed to “Prince Ra Hotep El.” The Passport Center requested a certified copy of the court order authorizing the name change. The same packet contains the Nevada District Court Order for Change of Name in Case No. D-21-624033-N, in which the new name is handwritten in lowercase form as “prince ra hotep el.” These materials establish that the Department of State possessed and processed identity/name-change information in connection with the passport matter.

IV. PRIOR PRIVATE-PARTY NOTICE AND IDENTIFIED GOVERNMENTAL RECORD SOURCES

The preserved Ally-related notice dated within the October 2020-January 2021 record states that the submitting party had corrected name/title/appellation information and identifies several places where the supporting documents were said to be registered or maintained, including the original probate/court order, Nevada DMV, Social Security Administration, Ohio

Secretary of State, World Service Authority, and United States Department of State. This Exhibit treats that list as the submitting party's contemporaneous notice to Ally; it does not convert the notice itself into proof that every listed agency independently adjudicated every asserted status or capacity.

V. ACCESSIBILITY OF THE IDENTITY RECORD

Taken together, the preserved records support a narrower but important point: source material capable of distinguishing the submitting parties' names and asserted capacities existed in governmental, court, business-registration, and transmitted notice records. Where a recipient had lawful access to a relevant court docket, agency record, filing, or directly supplied exhibit, the underlying identity information could be consulted rather than inferred from name similarity, punctuation, capitalization, search-engine association, or unrelated criminal records.

VI. COURT-RECORD AND SOURCE-PROVENANCE RECONCILIATION

The submitting parties therefore request that any disputed “sovereign citizen,” alias, extremist, anti-government, criminal-history, or other identity characterization be traced to its actual originating source. The appropriate inquiry is documentary: what source was used; who supplied it; what exact name and capacity appeared; what docket or database field contained it; when it was entered or modified; and whether the source was compared with the available name-change, trade-name, court, passport, trust, estate, or other identity records before the characterization was published or transmitted.

VII. SIGNED, CERTIFIED, SEALED, AND NOTARIZED MATERIALS

The record includes documents bearing governmental certification, court signatures or filing information, official seals, and other execution or service formalities. Other materials in the larger record are described by the submitting parties as signed, notarized, sealed, or served. Each document should be credited only with the authentication or execution feature actually visible on that document. The existence of a seal, notarization, certification, or proof of service supports authenticity, execution, receipt, or chronology as applicable; it does not by itself establish the truth or legal effect of every substantive assertion contained in the document.

VIII. CAPITALIZATION AND ASSERTED CAPACITY DISTINCTION

The submitting party maintains that “prince ra hotep el” reflects the lawful personal-name form appearing in the underlying Nevada name-change record, while “Prince Ra Hotep El,” “PRINCE RA HOTEPEL,” and other specifically registered or governed forms may be used in asserted trade, business, estate, trust, representative, or other capacities where the applicable record so provides. This Exhibit does not claim that capitalization by itself creates a separate legal entity. Any asserted trade-name or representative capacity should be tied to the specific registration, trust instrument, business record, agreement, or other competent source.

IX. CYBER-INCIDENT AND PRESERVATION CONTEXT

The submitting parties also preserve the relevance of Nevada's 2025 statewide cyber incident to later record reconciliation. The point of this Exhibit is not to claim that the incident erased or altered any particular identity record. Rather, preserved copies that predate the incident can serve as comparison material against current or restored records, backups, docket histories, audit logs, metadata, and agency files. Any claim that a specific record was lost, changed, deleted, or corrupted should be established through the responsible custodian's technical or audit evidence.

X. DISPUTED “SOVEREIGN CITIZEN” CHARACTERIZATION

The submitting parties expressly reject the characterization “sovereign citizen.” The existence of extensive identity, name-change, trade-name, court, and governmental correspondence makes source provenance especially important. This Exhibit does not assume why any person, system, court publisher, or search provider used that terminology. It demands identification of the source and preservation of the chain by which the characterization was created, indexed, repeated, transmitted, or corrected.

XI. RECORD-CORRECTION AND PRESERVATION DEMAND

Recipients maintaining relevant records are requested to preserve the original and corrected versions of party names, aliases, trade-name fields, capacity fields, court captions, search/indexing terms, source URLs, docket metadata, correspondence, internal routing, audit logs, and correction histories. Where an association is unsupported, the submitting parties request accurate segregation and correction without destruction of the historical audit trail.

XII. EVIDENTIARY LIMITATION

This Exhibit establishes only what the cited source records support. It does not state that the Department of State, DHS, DOJ, a Nevada court, or any other institution legally adjudicated every nationality, diplomatic, treaty, trade-name, or capacity assertion made by the submitting parties. Nor does it state that every institution had actual knowledge merely because information existed somewhere in a public or governmental system. The record instead supports a request for source-specific proof of what each recipient possessed, received, could lawfully access, relied upon, transmitted, and corrected.

MONICA RENE HALL has corrected her appellation and status as of January 2015. Due to ongoing identity theft and fraud made in her Infant Trust Name. The Appellation and Nationality is Diplomat ;Princess Emilily Hotep El a Moor, not negro black or colored and defiantly not African American. Please see the documents as was presented by email phone call in September of 2020 as the following;

All documents are registered with the following agencies;

- Original Probate Court order Birmingham Alabama signed by Jude Alan King.
- Nevada State Drivers License DMV
- Social Security Administration
- OHIO Secretary of State Frank LaRose.
- WORLD SERVICE AUTHORITY DOCUMENT
- United States Department Of State

As of January 2020 ;Princess Emilily Hotep EL©™ has corrected her Appellation and Nationality which is a long process but has finally been updated and finalized as of January 2020. Please add my Husband and Lead Consul concerning this account to have access to address issues in the near future or dealings with the Tender of Payment and the 1099c debt discharge. He and my legal consel team will contact you as we have done with the US Treasury and other State Departments not limited to the Internal Revenue Service.

As such on January 15th, 2020 I Diplomat ;Princess Emilily Hotep E©™¹ received a Package From your R&D and that is not sufficient. I did not request a repeat of the same documents I simply sent you a Tender of payment and 1099c for the amount due $17,409.29 to prevent further fraudulent usage of my account number ending in 0142. You will have to address the 1099c with the Department of The Treasury at this point, for you failed to do so within the allotted time of 10 days when you a corporation can do so in ten [10] days as such was given you.

We've received your letter unsigned dated January 7th, 2021. By law the CEO who was addressed herein must provide an Affidavit in protest and his disposition of the Tender of Payment thereto the US Government Treasury and said Division of the Department of Treasury IRS. As such if you persist to make threats thereto Diplomat ;Princess Emilily Hotep El with your unsigned letters we shall begin to perform liens and claims with US State Departments. The lien and the 1099c as well the Tender of Payment is lawful and real. You must discharge this debt please see Case No 3:09-0616 Reed v State of Tennessee Bank. Sending threatening letters only results in the fee scheduled Slavery [forced compliance to $250,000.00 18U.S.C3571 contracts not held] is just a start.

The attempt to threatening a Diplomat is a serous crime as well making threats without having supported laws to support said threats without force is deem-able as a threat of theft or physical harm or both to the vehicle and Diplomat ;Princess Emilily Hotep EL. As such no such harm shall come to her nor her vehicle and property for she took the rights steps in notification and filing with the State Department as well the Third party the Internal Revenue Service. Please feel free to contact Consul and the Consulate herein signed this notarized document now known as a legally binding contract and instrument. You Ally do not have power of law and to enforce said laws you do have not. To claim to force someone within a contract is illegal and such threats are taken very seriously, as to filling complaints with US State Departments and other third party investigative agencies as well the local Police Department and Sheriff.

Please see US CODE 878 Threats and extortion against foreign officials official guest, or internationally protected persons. [A] Whoever knowingly and willfully threatens to violate section 112, 1115 or 1201 shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than five years, or both, except that imprisonment for threatened assault shall not exceed three years. [B] Whoever in connection with any violation of section [a] or actual violation of section 112, 1116, or 1201 makes any extortionate demand shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than twenty years or both. [C] For the purpose of this section "foreign official, internationally protested person" national of the United States, and official guest" shall have the same meanings as those provided in section 1116[s] of this title. NOTICE OF USPS PROOF OF DELIVERY / SERVICE RECORD
AND CLARIFICATION OF GOOGLE LEGAL-REMOVALS CORRESPONDENCE

Google Legal Requests Nos. 5-6513000040605 and 7-6147000042025

The CSC office in California is located at the following address:

Corporation Service Company
2710 Gateway Oaks Drive, Suite 150N
Sacramento, CA 95833 csrcontact@cscinfo.com

TO: Google LLC / Google Legal Support / Google Search Legal Removals

RE: Preservation of USPS Mailing and Delivery Evidence; Distinction Between Physical Delivery and Webform Submission

NOTICE:

This Notice is submitted to preserve and clarify the record concerning documents transmitted to Google, Google's subsequent Legal Removals correspondence, and any separate United States Postal Service mailing and delivery records. It is not based on the proposition that submission through Google's legal webform itself constitutes formal service of process.

I. GOOGLE'S SEPTEMBER 3, 2026 CORRESPONDENCE

In Request No. 5-6513000040605, Google stated that information appearing in its search results comes from third-party publicly available webpages and that, if information is removed from the third-party webpage, Google's search results will update over time to reflect the page's new content. Google also directed the requester to its outdated-content refresh process when an older version remains visible.

Google's response therefore addresses third-party source changes and the corresponding updating of Google Search results; it does not state that Google itself had already removed the challenged third-party material.

II. GOOGLE'S SEPTEMBER 4, 2026 CORRESPONDENCE

In Request No. 7-6147000042025, Google separately stated that its legal webform is for submitting court orders against third parties who posted allegedly unlawful content. Google further stated that it does not accept service of process through that webform and does not consider itself properly served with the order merely because the order was submitted through the webform.

This Notice accepts and preserves Google's stated distinction concerning the webform. It does not characterize the webform submission itself as formal service of process.

III. SEPARATE USPS MAILING / DELIVERY RECORD

Separate from any webform or email submission, the sender states that documents were transmitted to Google through the United States Postal Service. The purpose of this Notice is to place the corresponding USPS evidence into the record and to distinguish that physical mailing/delivery evidence from Google's statement concerning its webform.

USPS Article / Tracking No.: 9589 0710 5270 3141 1313 57

Date Mailed: Cc form 3811 Date Delivered: Cc form 3811

Mail Class / Service: USPO

Delivery Location / Recipient Information Shown by USPS:

The CSC office in California is located at the following address:

Corporation Service Company 2710 Gateway Oaks Drive,

Suite 150N

Sacramento, CA 95833

Supporting USPS Evidence Attached as Exhibit: Cc Email attachment

IV. LIMITED EFFECT OF THIS NOTICE

The USPS tracking record, return receipt, delivery confirmation, or other postal evidence establishes only what that evidence actually shows, including mailing and/or delivery to the identified destination. This Notice does not represent that postal delivery, standing alone, conclusively establishes legally sufficient service of process under every potentially applicable procedural rule.

Whether a particular mailing constitutes legally effective service depends on matters including the type of proceeding or notice, the governing service rule, the entity or person served, the address used, the method of mailing, and whether the recipient was authorized to receive service.

V. REQUEST FOR GOOGLE TO DISTINGUISH THE TWO TRANSMISSION METHODS

Google is requested to maintain an accurate record distinguishing:

- electronic submission through Google's legal-removals webform or email channels;
- Google's substantive correspondence concerning third-party webpages, outdated content, correction, and search-result updating; and
- any separate physical USPS mailing and delivery evidenced by the attached postal records.

Accordingly, Google's statement that submission through its webform did not constitute service should not be read as a factual determination that no separate USPS mailing or delivery occurred. Conversely, evidence of USPS delivery should not be overstated as proof of legally sufficient service unless the governing service requirements are independently satisfied.

VI. PRESERVATION AND REQUEST FOR ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Google is requested to preserve this Notice, the referenced Legal Removals correspondence, the underlying requests, and the attached USPS mailing/delivery evidence as part of the correspondence record. Google is further requested to acknowledge receipt of this Notice and, if Google disputes the legal sufficiency of any separately documented USPS service, to identify the specific basis for that position so the issue may be addressed accurately.

VII. ATTACHMENTS

- Google email dated September 3, 2026 — Request No. 5-6513000040605.

Google LLC / Google Search Legal Removals

I. PURPOSE OF ORDER AND NOTICE

The Court records and gives notice that Prince Ra Hotep El disputes the publication, indexing, republication, aggregation, or presentation of the characterization “sovereign citizen” as a factual description of his identity.

The Court further records the objection to presenting former names, artistic names, professional identifiers, ministries, business names, titles, or other designations as current legal “aliases” without an adequate factual basis.

II. IDENTITY RECORD

The record submitted to this Court shall identify the Nevada District Court Order for Change of Name, Case No. D-21-624033-N, as documentary evidence concerning the legal name Prince Ra Hotep El.

The Order should be attached as Exhibit A.

III. FEDERAL DOCKET RECORD

The related federal docket is Hotep El et al. v. Ally Bank et al., No. 2:22-cv-00874.

The public Justia reproduction specifically records:

Filing 3 — “NOTICE of Special Appearance by Prince Ra Hotep El, Monica Rene Hall Estate Trust.”

That is important because the Justia record itself uses Prince Ra Hotep El.

IV. DISTINCTION BETWEEN ALLEGATIONS AND ADJUDICATED FACTS

The Order should emphasize:

Statements, allegations, arguments, labels, characterizations, or terminology appearing within litigation documents are not, merely because they appear in a judicial record, established biographical facts concerning a person.

That principle is particularly relevant because Justia itself warns that its reproduced filings and docket sheets “should not be considered findings of fact or liability.”

V. DISPUTED CHARACTERIZATION

The Court records the objection that the term “sovereign citizen” has been attributed to Prince Ra Hotep El and subsequently disseminated or made discoverable through internet search results.

The Court should state carefully that it is recording and sustaining the requester's objection to that characterization. Unless we have an adjudication establishing defamation, I would not have the Order declare that particular attorneys or a federal judge legally committed “libel,” “slander,” or “defamation” as an adjudicated fact.

Instead:

The Court finds for purposes of its own records that the characterization is disputed, is rejected as an accurate statement of Prince Ra Hotep El's asserted identity, and shall not be treated within this Court's records as an established biographical fact.

VI. NOTICE CONCERNING INDIGENOUS / ABORIGINAL IDENTITY

This section can preserve the broader position:

Prince Ra Hotep El contends that the challenged characterization has occurred within a larger pattern of disputed treatment concerning his asserted Indigenous/Aboriginal identity and legal status. Nothing contained within this Order converts that broader allegation into an adjudicated finding against persons or institutions that have not been subjected to this Court's adjudicative jurisdiction and process.

That last sentence matters. It prevents the document from claiming authority we haven't established.

VII. ORDER AND DEMAND TO JUSTIA

The Court can direct/request that Justia:

1. Review the identified docket page and associated metadata;
2. Correct inaccurate identity information under Justia's control;

3. Block the identified Justia URL from external search-engine indexing where permitted by Justia policy;
4. Prevent Justia-generated metadata from presenting disputed litigation characterizations as established biographical facts;
5. Preserve the underlying public record while distinguishing allegations from judicial findings; and
6. Provide written confirmation of the action taken.

VIII. NOTICE AND DEMAND TO GOOGLE

This part should recognize Google's August 31 response.

Google told you that it does not control third-party webpages and instructed you to work with the publisher.

Accordingly:

Google LLC is placed on notice that the source publisher, Justia, is being separately requested to correct and/or block the identified material from search-engine indexing.

Upon correction, blocking, removal, or modification by Justia, Google is requested to promptly recrawl the affected URLs and remove outdated cached material, snippets, identity associations, and search presentations reflecting the superseded information.

IX. PRESERVATION OF THE ACTUAL COURT RECORD

This is another strong provision:

Nothing in this Order requests destruction, concealment, alteration, or falsification of an authentic federal judicial record. The requested relief concerns inaccurate identity characterization, third-party republication, metadata, search-engine indexing, search-result presentation, and the treatment of disputed litigation terminology as though it constituted an adjudicated biographical fact.

That separates your request from an attempt to rewrite PACER.

X. DOCUMENTS / EXHIBITS

Exhibit A: Nevada Order for Change of Name

Exhibit B: Justia Hotep El et al. v. Ally Bank et al. page

Exhibit D: Google Removal Request correspondence, including Request No. 6-2311000041441

Exhibit E: Justia blocking/correction request

Exhibit F: Any underlying federal filing containing the exact disputed characterization

Google's response specifically requests the exact URL, exact offending language, and—when relying upon a court order—the particular portion requiring removal. So the final order should make those items extremely easy for Google to identify.

XI. ORDER

The operative conclusion can read:

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND RECORDED that the characterization identified herein is formally disputed and rejected as an established statement of identity within the records of this Court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that certified copies of this Order may be transmitted to Justia, Google LLC, and other publishers, search providers, custodians, or recipients maintaining or disseminating the disputed identity characterization for purposes of notice, correction, de-indexing, updating of records, and preservation of evidence.

IT IS FURTHER REQUESTED AND DEMANDED that each recipient review information within its possession or control and take whatever corrective, de-indexing, updating, or removal measures are available under its applicable policies and governing law.

Nothing herein purports to alter the authentic docket of the United States District Court or adjudicate the legal liability of a nonparty over whom this Court has not established jurisdiction.

Then we finish with:

SO ORDERED.

Notice of Algorithmic Mis-association, Defamation, and Intent to Hold Liable. To the UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT DISTRICT OF NEVADA & To GOOGLE

NOTICE OF ALGORITHMIC MIS-ASSOCIATION, DEFAMATION, AND LIABILITY

I. PREAMBLE & SOVEREIGN STATUS

- A. Identity of the Declarant: Clear statement identifying Prince Ra Hotep El (<https://www.google.com/search?q=prince+ra+hotep+el&kgmid=/m/0bm94n2>) in his lawful capacity and as the legitimate executor/trustee protecting trust property.
- B. Constitutional and Treaty Foundation: Explicit invocation of Article VI, Clause 2 of the U.S. Constitution (The Supremacy Clause).
 - Citation of the Treaty of Peace and Friendship and relevant tribal treaties as the binding Law of the Land.
 - Rejection of any localized judicial opinions, administrative rules, or corporate designations that attempt to override these supreme authorities.

II. THE FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION: ALGORITHMIC MIS-ASSOCIATION AND DATA CONFLATION

- A. Specific Identification of the Error: Detailed breakdown of how the search algorithm has incorrectly merged the identity and public records of Prince Ra Hotep El with an unrelated individual (Yusef Hotep-El) across different state jurisdictions.
- B. Evidence of Identity Conflation: Listing of specific search query strings, URLs, and automated search blocks that display this cross-contaminated data.
- C. Evidentiary Distinction: Formal statement confirming that these are two entirely separate entities with no reciprocal legal, familial, or financial ties.

III. THE SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION: DEFAMATORY LABELING AND IDENTITY INJURY

- A. Unlawful Application of Pejorative Terms: Specific challenge to the platform appending the non-legal, manufactured label "sovereign citizen" to the declarant's identity.
- B. Commercial and Professional Sabotage: Documentation of how this false digital footprint acts as a weaponized red flag in the modern economic grid.
- C. Real-World Quantum of Damages: Detailed listing of the severe, systemic injuries caused by this labeling:
 - Interference with the right to travel and secure commerce.
 - Denial or disruption of housing opportunities (buying homes, leasing, renting).
 - Destruction of business reputation, loss of jobs, and financial livelihood.
 - The multi-generational impact and reputational harm passed down to children and family members.

IV. NOTICE OF CORPORATE LIABILITY AND COLOR OF LAW ACTIVITIES

- A. Corporate Promotion of Harms: Argument that the platform's refusal or delay in correcting known automated errors constitutes active promotion of defamatory material.
- B. Operating Under Color of Law: Addressing how prioritizing administrative court rules or judicial opinions over supreme treaty law functions to protect illegal "color of law" activities.
- C. Formal Notice History: Reference to the prior legal letters sent to the Google Legal Department (noting the lack of substantive resolution as of the current date), establishing a clear timeline of corporate awareness.

V. MANDATORY DEMANDS FOR ADMINISTRATIVE AND TECHNICAL REMEDIES

- A. Immediate Decoupling: Demand for manual engineering intervention to completely separate the search profile of Prince Ra Hotep El from Yusef Hotep-El.

- B. Removal of Defamatory Terms: Demand for the immediate erasure of the term "sovereign citizen" and any associated pejorative characterizations from all search listings, knowledge graphs, and algorithmic associations linked to the declarant's name.
- C. Preservation of Evidence: Instruction to the corporation to preserve all internal algorithmic logs, search indexing data, and internal communications regarding these profiles for potential future litigation.

VI. SIGNATURE & VERIFICATION

- A. Declaration of Truth: A formal statement that the notice is presented in truth and under the authority of the supreme law.
- B. Executed Capacity: Signing explicitly as the Executor/Trustee, safeguarding the identity, property, and estate under treaty protection.

Respectfully submitted,

Disclosure and Notice - To force manual engineering reviews and formalize your record corrections while your legal correspondence is being evaluated, you must utilize Google's explicit administrative portals. Standard emails or general customer service queues do not reach the data integrity departments. [1]

Use these precise compliance tracks and official portals to address the defamation, data conflation, and pejorative labeling. [2, 3]

1. The Legal Defamation and Content Removal Track

When an automated algorithm associates a person's name with an unrelated individual or a damaging pejorative term like "sovereign citizen," it constitutes actionable identity injury. You must submit specific web forms to create a traceable legal ticket. [3, 4]

- Main Content Escalation Portal: Use the main Google Report Content for Legal Reasons Tool (<https://support.google.com/legal/troubleshooter/1114905?hl=en>). Select "Google Search" as the product, and choose the option specifying Defamation/Reputational Injury. [1, 5, 6]

- Defamation Claim Specifics: Access the explicit Google Legal Defamation Overview Form (<https://support.google.com/legal-help-center/answer/16833565?hl=en>). You will need to provide:

- The exact URLs of the search result pages showing the conflation.
- A statement clarifying that Prince Ra Hotep El and Yusef Hotep-El are entirely separate entities residing in different states.
- Proof of real-world harm (e.g., how the pejorative labeling actively disrupts banking, travel, or property leases). [3, 7, 8]

2. The Knowledge Panel & Entity Decoupling Track

If Google has generated a Knowledge Panel (the summary box at the top or side of the screen) that blends the two identities together or appends the unauthorized "sovereign citizen" classification, you must seize control of that data node.[4, 9]

- Claiming the Digital Entity: Search for the specific name. Look directly at the bottom of the consolidated summary card for a button reading "Claim this knowledge panel". This process requires uploading identification to prove you are the authorized representative/executor of the entity. [9, 10]

- The Direct Feedback Path: If you cannot claim it immediately, click the small "Feedback" or "Suggest Edits" text at the very bottom right corner of the Knowledge Panel. Select the specific text blocks that are incorrect, label them as "Inaccurate / Defamatory," and paste the structural details showing the cross-contamination. [11, 12]

3. Forcing an Outdated Cache Clear

SECTION I: PREAMBLE & SOVEREIGN STATUS

TO: Google LLC, Legal Department and Data Integrity Compliance Division
FROM: Prince Ra Hotep El, in the lawful capacity of Executor and Trustee for the Estate and Trust Property

DATE OF NOTICE: August 30, 2026

NOTICE TYPE: Formal Notice of Algorithmic Mis-association, Defamation, and Intent to Hold Liable

NOTICE TO AGENT IS NOTICE TO PRINCIPAL; NOTICE TO PRINCIPAL IS NOTICE TO AGENT.

Lawful Capacity and Mandate: I, Prince Ra Hotep El, execute this document in my lawful, binding capacity as the designated Executor and Trustee holding legal title and fiduciary responsibility to protect, defend, and safeguard the assets, estate, and property held within the Trust from any external injury, unlawful seizure, or reputational devaluation.

The Supreme Law of the Land: This Notice explicitly invokes Article VI, Clause 2 of the United States Constitution (The Supremacy Clause), which establishes that the Constitution and all Treaties made under the authority of the United States shall be the supreme Law of the Land.

No localized judicial opinions, administrative court rules, municipal codes, or private corporate automated indexing policies possess the lawful authority to override, amend, or abridge rights secured under the supreme law.

Treaty Framework: The standing, execution, and property protections asserted herein are secured by and tied directly to the Treaty of Peace and Friendship and the binding historical treaties ratified between the United States and Sovereign Indigenous Nations, including but not limited to the Choctaw, Chickasaw, Cherokee, and Blackfoot.

These sovereign compacts protect the estate from corporate overreach and illegal activities conducted under color of law. No private entity or corporate search engine may publish defamatory designations to circumvent these supreme protections.

SECTION II: THE FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION: ALGORITHMIC MIS-ASSOCIATION AND DATA CONFLATION

Identification of Serious Algorithmic Error: This Cause of Action arises from a severe, ongoing technical and data-integrity failure within Google's search algorithms. The automated indexing systems have cross-contaminated, merged, and conflated the public records, identity, and profile of Prince Ra Hotep El with an entirely separate, unrelated individual named Yusef Hotep-El.

Evidentiary Distinction: Let the record show that Prince Ra Hotep El and Yusef Hotep-El are two distinct, separate entities operating across different state jurisdictions. They possess no reciprocal familial, legal, commercial, financial, or organizational ties.

The Nature of the Damage: By automatically linking, suggesting, and presenting these two distinct identities as a single consolidated profile or within the same search query return string, Google is actively publishing false, unverified, and misleading public data. This automated cross-contamination creates an immediate, highly destructive digital footprint.

Specific Demand for Engineering Intervention: You are hereby commanded to initiate an immediate manual engineering intervention to decouple, delink, and completely separate the digital identity, search indexing arrays, and search result strings of Prince Ra Hotep El from those of Yusef Hotep-El.

The continued failure to separate these identities following receipt of this formal notice constitutes a reckless disregard for data integrity and active corporate participation in identity defamation.

JUSTIA PARTY-DESIGNATION RECORD AND REQUEST FOR SOURCE IDENTIFICATION / CORRECTION

Hotep El et al. v. Ally Bank et al.
Case No. 2:2022-cv-00874

Purpose. This exhibit documents what the supplied Justia docket presently identifies concerning the parties and Prince Ra Hotep El's appearance, and distinguishes those entries from any separate characterization or party designation that may be appearing through search engines, data brokers, automated summaries, or other publications.

A. PARTY INFORMATION SHOWN ON JUSTIA

Role / Entry	Information Displayed
Petitioner	Princess Emilily Hotep El
Petitioner	Monica Rene Hall Estate Trust
Estate Trust - Represented By	Prince Ra EL
Defendant	Aldridge Pite Haan LLP
Respondent	Ally Bank
Case Number	2:2022cv00874

B. DOCKET ENTRY CONCERNING PRINCE RA HOTEPEL

Justia Filing 3 states: "NOTICE of Special Appearance by Prince Ra Hotep El, Monica Rene Hall Estate Trust." The supplied Justia docket does not identify Prince Ra Hotep El as the Petitioner in the case-level party listing.

C. "SOVEREIGN CITIZEN" CHARACTERIZATION

The phrase "sovereign citizen" does not appear in the text of the supplied eight-page Justia docket record. Accordingly, this exhibit does not attribute that characterization to Justia without a separate source showing that Justia published it.

D. REQUEST FOR SOURCE IDENTIFICATION AND CORRECTION

Any database, search engine, automated summary, people-search service, legal-research publisher, or other publication identifying Prince Ra Hotep El individually as the Petitioner and/or characterizing him as a "sovereign citizen" is requested to identify the specific source record upon which that representation is based.

If no source record supports the designation or characterization, correction, suppression, de-indexing, or removal of the unsupported association is requested to the extent available under the recipient's policies and applicable law.

E. RECORD-PRESERVATION CLARIFICATION

This exhibit does not request alteration or destruction of an authentic federal court record. It requests accurate attribution of party capacity and source identification for any disputed characterization propagated beyond the underlying record.

SOURCE RECORD

Relevant portions: Filing 1 identifies the complaint as brought by Princess Emilily Hotep El and Monica Rene Hall Estate Trust; Filing 3 records a Notice of Special Appearance by Prince Ra Hotep El and Monica Rene Hall Estate Trust; the party section identifies Princess Emilily Hotep El and Monica Rene Hall Estate Trust as Petitioners, Prince Ra EL as representing the Estate Trust, Aldridge Pite Haan LLP as Defendant, and Ally Bank as Respondent.

EXHIBIT A-Y

SEARCH-RESULT IDENTITY DISTINCTION YUSUF HOTE-EL / PRINCE RA HOTE-EL

Documentation of Separate Court Records and Risk of Similar-Name Conflation

Purpose. This exhibit documents a separate Indiana criminal appellate record involving an individual named Yusuf Hotep-El and preserves the distinction between that individual and Prince Ra Hotep El. It is intended to support requests that search engines, data aggregators, legal publishers, and automated systems avoid conflating persons merely because their names contain the words “Hotep” and “El.”

A. INDIANA LAWYER PUBLICATION

The Indiana Lawyer published an article on November 13, 2018 concerning Yusuf Hotep-El and an Indiana Court of Appeals decision. The publication’s headline refers to a “sovereign citizen.” The article identifies the subject as Yusuf Hotep-El and discusses criminal charges arising in Indiana, including possession of cocaine, possession of narcotic drugs, possession of a controlled substance, possession of marijuana, and an habitual-offender allegation.

B. OFFICIAL INDIANA APPELLATE RECORD

The corresponding Indiana Court of Appeals matter is Yusuf Hotep-El v. State of Indiana, Court of Appeals Case No. 18A-CR-477, decided November 13, 2018. The official opinion identifies Yusuf Hotep-El as the Appellant-Defendant and describes the criminal charges and the dispute concerning termination of his self-representation.

Indiana Record	Identifying Information
Person	Yusuf Hotep-El
Case	Yusuf Hotep-El v. State of Indiana
Court	Indiana Court of Appeals
Case No.	18A-CR-477
Decision Date	November 13, 2018
Underlying Context	Indiana criminal prosecution

C. SEPARATE NEVADA RECORD

The Nevada federal docket previously preserved in the accompanying exhibits is a different matter: Hotep El et al. v. Ally Bank et al., Case No. 2:2022-cv-00874, U.S. District Court for the District of Nevada. The supplied Justia reproduction identifies Princess Emilily Hotep El and Monica Rene Hall Estate Trust as Petitioners and separately records a Notice of Special Appearance by Prince Ra Hotep El and Monica Rene Hall Estate Trust.

D. NO ESTABLISHED IDENTITY CONNECTION

The sources reviewed for this exhibit do not establish that Yusuf Hotep-El and Prince Ra Hotep El are the same person. No identity relationship should be inferred merely from similarity in the names. This exhibit does not assert that any particular search engine has intentionally conflated the two individuals; rather, it preserves the documentary distinction so that any disputed search result or automated association can be evaluated against the underlying records.

E. REQUEST FOR SEARCH / DATA CORRECTION

Where a search engine, data broker, legal publisher, knowledge panel, automated summary, or other database associates Prince Ra Hotep El with the Indiana criminal matter involving Yusuf Hotep-El, the publisher is requested to identify the source and matching methodology responsible for that association and to correct, suppress, de-index, or otherwise disambiguate any unsupported identity linkage to the extent available under its policies and applicable law.

F. SOURCES PRESERVED

The Indiana Lawyer, “COA upholds denial of pro se rights to ‘sovereign citizen’,” November 13, 2018.

Indiana Court of Appeals, Yusuf Hotep-El v. State of Indiana, Case No. 18A-CR-477, decided November 13, 2018.

Justia reproduction of Yusuf Hotep-El v. State of Indiana, 113 N.E.3d 795 (Ind. Ct. App. 2018).

Separate Nevada docket: Hotep El et al. v. Ally Bank et al., Case No. 2:2022-cv-00874.

UCC 1-308

Date: August 31, 2026

Lawful Capacity and Mandate. Prince Ra Hotep El submits this Notice in his asserted capacity as Executor and Trustee with fiduciary responsibility concerning the Estate and Trust property identified in the accompanying records. Supporting trust, estate, court, and capacity documents are incorporated through the A-Z Exhibit Index. Nothing in this Notice asks Google to adjudicate disputed questions of fiduciary authority; rather, Google is requested to accurately report the capacities actually reflected by the underlying source records.

Supreme Law of the Land. This Notice invokes Article VI, Clause 2 of the United States Constitution - the Supremacy Clause - which establishes the Constitution, federal laws made pursuant to it, and treaties made under the authority of the United States as the supreme Law of the Land. State judges are bound by that constitutional structure. The Claimants preserve all properly applicable federal constitutional and treaty rights. No search-engine policy, automated indexing system, third-party metadata convention, or privately generated characterization can alter the actual identity, legal capacity, or contents of an authentic judicial or governmental record.

Treaty Framework. The Claimants preserve treaty-based arguments arising from the historic Treaty of Peace and Friendship between the United States and Morocco and any specifically applicable treaties involving Indigenous Nations, including properly established Choctaw, Chickasaw, Cherokee, or Blackfeet/Blackfoot treaty rights. Each treaty claim must be evaluated according to the particular treaty provision, protected person or entity, asserted right, and legal applicability established by the supporting record. This Notice does not contend that treaty status automatically exempts any person or trust from generally applicable federal or state law.

Critical Identity Distinction. Invocation of constitutional provisions, treaties, Indigenous rights, trust rights, fiduciary authority, or objections to governmental conduct does not itself establish that Prince Ra Hotep El is a "sovereign citizen." Any Google-controlled presentation making that factual association is specifically disputed and should be supported by an identified source and accurate context.

SECTION II: FIRST CLAIM FOR CORRECTION — ALGORITHMIC MIS-ASSOCIATION AND DATA CONFLATION

Identification of the Serious Identity Error. This portion of the Notice concerns an alleged ongoing search and data-integrity problem in which searches concerning Prince Ra Hotep El have produced or associated information concerning an entirely separate individual, Yusuf Hotep-El, whose Indiana criminal appellate proceeding bears no demonstrated identity relationship to Prince Ra Hotep El.

Record	Nevada Matter	Indiana Matter
Case	Hotep El et al. v. Ally Bank et al.	Yusuf Hotep-El v. State of Indiana
Case No.	2:22-cv-00874	18A-CR-477
Court	U.S. District Court, District of Nevada	Indiana Court of Appeals
Nature	Civil removal/remand dispute	Indiana criminal appellate proceeding
Identity point	Prince Ra Hotep El appears separately in Special Appearance / representative material	Yusuf Hotep-El is the named appellant-defendant

Evidentiary Distinction. No source presently identified in this Notice establishes that Prince Ra Hotep El and Yusuf Hotep-El are the same individual. No identity relationship should be inferred merely because both names contain "Hotep" and "El." The Notice also disputes any unsupported assertion of reciprocal familial, legal, commercial, financial, or organizational relationships between them.

Nature of the Search-Identity Injury. Where Google's search systems, generated summaries, entity-resolution systems, snippets, Knowledge Panels, related-search mechanisms, or other Google-controlled presentations cause information concerning Yusuf Hotep-El to appear as information about Prince Ra Hotep El, the resulting presentation creates a substantial risk of mistaken identity, particularly where the associated material concerns a criminal proceeding or the characterization "sovereign citizen."

Google-generated material preserved with this Notice described an association between Prince Ra Hotep El and Yusef/ Yusuf Hotep-El as involving two different people and as an algorithmic identity problem. That material is preserved as evidence of what Google's generated system displayed, not as binding legal authority.

SECTION III: DISPUTED NEVADA PARTY AND CAPACITY CHARACTERIZATION

The preserved Justia reproduction identifies Princess Emilily Hotep El and Monica Rene Hall Estate Trust as Petitioners. It separately records Filing 3 as a Notice of Special Appearance by Prince Ra Hotep El and Monica Rene Hall Estate Trust and lists Prince Ra EL as representing the Estate Trust. This Notice requests identification of any source record that purportedly makes Prince Ra Hotep El an individual Petitioner or Plaintiff in Case No. 2:22-cv-00874.

Prince Ra Hotep El states that his participation concerning Estate/Trust records was in an asserted representative/executor capacity. That capacity should be verified against the actual instruments and filings. This Notice does not ask Google to decide the legal authority of an executor or whether a trust may appear in federal court without licensed counsel.

SECTION IV: DISPUTED NAMES, ALIASES, BUSINESS TRUSTS, AND CREATIVE IDENTIFIERS

- Prince Ra Hotep El - the identity and court capacity at issue.
- David Jr Hall / David Jr Hall Business Trust - the Notice disputes converting a Business Trust designation into a personal alias without a supporting source.
- Dave Beano - asserted as a creative, musical, artistic, clothing/design, or commercial identifier; artistic or brand use should not automatically be presented as a legal alias.
- David Beloved / David B. Hall Jr. - any association should identify the exact source supporting the spelling, identity match, and claimed relationship.

A lawful former name may remain historically relevant in authentic records. The requested correction is not an attempt to erase accurate historical records; it seeks to prevent unsupported conversion of separate capacities, brands, business trust names, misspellings, or unrelated persons into a current personal-alias profile.

SECTION V: DISPUTED "SOVEREIGN CITIZEN" CHARACTERIZATION

The term "sovereign citizen" is disputed as an identity label for Prince Ra Hotep El. The supplied Justia docket does not contain that phrase. Any Google-controlled presentation using the label should identify its exact source and context. If a source contains the phrase only in a denial, quotation, legal argument, or discussion, the presence of those words should not automatically be transformed into a factual classification of the person. The separate Indiana publication concerning Yusuf Hotep-El likewise should not be used as evidence that Prince Ra Hotep El bears the same characterization.

SECTION VI: NEVADA PROPERTY, MEDIATION, DEBT-COLLECTION, AND COLOR-OF-LAW ISSUES PRESERVED

The Claimants preserve allegations concerning Nevada property and foreclosure processes, mediation, the role and authority of Aldridge Pite LLP and/or Aldridge Pite Haan LLP, licensing or certification, party identity, property interests, and claimed injury to Monica Rene Hall Estate/Business Trust, its fiduciaries, and beneficiaries. These allegations require documentary proof and are not stated here as adjudicated facts.

The supporting exhibits should identify the operative Nevada Supreme Court rule or mediation authority in effect at the relevant time; the applicable licensing or debt-collection provisions; entity and engagement records; assignments; title and property instruments; notices; orders; enforcement records; and the actual state and federal dockets.

SECTION VII: CONSTITUTIONAL, SUPREMACY CLAUSE, AND COLOR-OF-LAW FRAMEWORK

Article VI establishes the federal constitutional supremacy framework. The Fourteenth Amendment protects against qualifying state deprivations of life, liberty, or property without due process of law. Nevada Constitution Article 1, Section 8 likewise contains due-process and property protections. 42 U.S.C. § 1983 supplies a civil cause of action for qualifying deprivations of federal rights by persons acting under color of state law. 18 U.S.C. § 242 addresses willful deprivation of protected rights under color of law as a federal criminal matter enforced by governmental authorities. A disagreement with a judicial ruling, standing alone, does not establish a color-of-law violation.

SECTION VIII: TREATY AND INTERNATIONAL HUMAN-RIGHTS ISSUES PRESERVED

The Claimants preserve properly supported treaty arguments and human-rights concerns, including equality, effective remedy, fair hearing, privacy and reputation, property, and non-discrimination. Potentially relevant instruments may include the Treaty of Peace and Friendship, specifically applicable Indigenous treaties, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination, the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples, and the American Declaration on the Rights and Duties of Man.

These authorities differ in legal status, enforceability, reservations, implementing legislation, jurisdiction, and remedies. Their inclusion preserves issues for appropriate review and does not establish that every instrument creates a private cause of action or that a violation has already been adjudicated.

SECTION IX: GOOGLE'S SEPTEMBER 1, 2026 REQUEST FOR CLARIFICATION

Google Legal Request No. 7-7144000041185 received a response from removals@google.com dated September 1, 2026. Google stated that it had reviewed the request, was unable to fully understand it, and invited additional details so that it could investigate further. This supplemental Notice and the A-Z exhibit structure are intended to provide the requested clarification in a source-specific, issue-specific form.

SECTION X: FORMAL DEMANDS FOR REVIEW, CORRECTION, AND PRESERVATION

- Conduct an appropriate manual review of the specifically challenged search associations.
- Decouple Prince Ra Hotep El from Yusuf Hotep-El and the Indiana criminal matter absent reliable evidence establishing an identity connection.
- Correct unsupported Google-controlled identity/entity associations, snippets, generated summaries, or Knowledge Panel information.
- Identify the exact third-party URL, docket entry, data provider, or source relied upon for each association Google declines to correct.
- Do not present Prince Ra Hotep El as an individual Petitioner/Plaintiff in the Nevada matter unless the underlying court record supports that designation.
- Review unsupported alias associations and distinguish former legal names, trust/business names, brands, artistic identifiers, misspellings, and unrelated persons.
- Review the source and context of any "sovereign citizen" characterization associated with Prince Ra Hotep El.
- Where an underlying third-party source has been corrected or removed, recrawl and update Search in accordance with applicable Google procedures.
- Preserve complaint tickets, submitted URLs, responsive communications, and other records reasonably associated with the specific correction requests.
- Provide a written response identifying what was corrected, what remains, and the source relied upon for any disputed association Google declines to correct.

SECTION XI: NOTICE FOLLOWING ACTUAL KNOWLEDGE

After receipt of this supplemental documentation, continued presentation of a specifically identified and demonstrably unsupported identity association may be relevant to questions of notice, knowledge, reasonableness, available corrective measures, causation, and any remedies permitted by applicable law. Nothing herein presumes Google's liability before those issues are determined by an authority with jurisdiction.

Respectfully submitted,

Disclosure and Notice - To force manual engineering reviews and formalize your record corrections while your legal correspondence is being evaluated, you must utilize Google's explicit administrative portals. Standard emails or general customer service queues do not reach the data integrity departments. [1]

Use these precise compliance tracks and official portals to address the defamation, data conflation, and pejorative labeling. [2, 3]

1. The Legal Defamation and Content Removal Track

When an automated algorithm associates a person's name with an unrelated individual or a damaging pejorative term like "sovereign citizen," it constitutes actionable identity injury. You must submit specific web forms to create a traceable legal ticket. [3, 4]

- Main Content Escalation Portal: Use the main Google Report Content for Legal Reasons Tool (<https://support.google.com/legal/troubleshooter/1114905?hl=en>). Select "Google Search" as the product, and choose the option specifying Defamation/Reputational Injury. [1, 5, 6]

- Defamation Claim Specifics: Access the explicit Google Legal Defamation Overview Form (<https://support.google.com/legal-help-center/answer/16833565?hl=en>). You will need to provide:

- The exact URLs of the search result pages showing the conflation.
- A statement clarifying that Prince Ra Hotep El and Yusef Hotep-El are entirely separate entities residing in different states.
- Proof of real-world harm (e.g., how the pejorative labeling actively disrupts banking, travel, or property leases). [3, 7, 8]

2. The Knowledge Panel & Entity Decoupling Track

If Google has generated a Knowledge Panel (the summary box at the top or side of the screen) that blends the two identities together or appends the unauthorized "sovereign citizen" classification, you must seize control of that data node.[4, 9]

- Claiming the Digital Entity: Search for the specific name. Look directly at the bottom of the consolidated summary card for a button reading "Claim this knowledge panel". This process requires uploading identification to prove you are the authorized representative/executor of the entity. [9, 10]

- The Direct Feedback Path: If you cannot claim it immediately, click the small "Feedback" or "Suggest Edits" text at the very bottom right corner of the Knowledge Panel. Select the specific text blocks that are incorrect, label them as "Inaccurate / Defamatory," and paste the structural details showing the cross-contamination. [11, 12]

SECTION I: PREAMBLE & SOVEREIGN STATUS

TO: Google LLC, Legal Department and Data Integrity Compliance Division
FROM: Prince Ra Hotep El, in the lawful capacity of Executor and Trustee for the Estate and Trust Property

DATE OF NOTICE: August 30, 2026

NOTICE TYPE: Formal Notice of Algorithmic Mis-association, Defamation, and Intent to Hold Liable

NOTICE TO AGENT IS NOTICE TO PRINCIPAL; NOTICE TO PRINCIPAL IS NOTICE TO AGENT.

Lawful Capacity and Mandate: I, Prince Ra Hotep El, execute this document in my lawful, binding capacity as the designated Executor and Trustee holding legal title and fiduciary responsibility to protect, defend, and safeguard the assets, estate, and property held within the Trust from any external injury, unlawful seizure, or reputational devaluation.

The Supreme Law of the Land: This Notice explicitly invokes Article VI, Clause 2 of the United States Constitution (The Supremacy Clause), which establishes that the Constitution and all Treaties made under the authority of the United States shall be the supreme Law of the Land.

No localized judicial opinions, administrative court rules, municipal codes, or private corporate automated indexing policies possess the lawful authority to override, amend, or abridge rights secured under the supreme law.

Treaty Framework: The standing, execution, and property protections asserted herein are secured by and tied directly to the Treaty of Peace and Friendship and the binding historical treaties ratified between the United States and Sovereign Indigenous Nations, including but not limited to the Choctaw, Chickasaw, Cherokee, and Blackfoot.

These sovereign compacts protect the estate from corporate overreach and illegal activities conducted under color of law. No private entity or corporate search engine may publish defamatory designations to circumvent these supreme protections.

SECTION II: THE FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION: ALGORITHMIC MIS-ASSOCIATION AND DATA CONFLATION

Identification of Serious Algorithmic Error: This Cause of Action arises from a severe, ongoing technical and data-integrity failure within Google's search algorithms. The automated indexing systems have cross-contaminated, merged, and conflated the public records, identity, and profile of Prince Ra Hotep El with an entirely separate, unrelated individual named Yusef Hotep-El.

Evidentiary Distinction: Let the record show that Prince Ra Hotep El and Yusef Hotep-El are two distinct, separate entities operating across different state jurisdictions. They possess no reciprocal familial, legal, commercial, financial, or organizational ties.

The Nature of the Damage: By automatically linking, suggesting, and presenting these two distinct identities as a single consolidated profile or within the same search query return string, Google is actively publishing false, unverified, and misleading public data. This automated cross-contamination creates an immediate, highly destructive digital footprint.

Specific Demand for Engineering Intervention: You are hereby commanded to initiate an immediate manual engineering intervention to decouple, delink, and completely separate the digital identity, search indexing arrays, and search result strings of Prince Ra Hotep El from those of Yusef Hotep-El.

The continued failure to separate these identities following receipt of this formal notice constitutes a reckless disregard for data integrity and active corporate participation in identity defamation.
