SEC COMPLAINT SUMMARY (Short Form)

Filed by: House of Judah Consular Court Tribunal 13

Trust: [REDACTED] | Case No. OTH-24-002493 | Claim No. 060108463

Email: consularcourttribunal13@proton.me | Website: www.dbnft.ai

Date: December 12, 2025

Subject: Ally Financial (Ticker: ALLY, CIK: 0000040729)

Category: Material Misstatement or Omission

Sub-category: Internal Controls / Books and Records

This complaint involves the filing of lawsuits and legal documents under the name of Ally Bank, while the actual security interest and Electronic Lien Title (ELT) belonged to Ally Financial, Inc. No merger, assignment, or disclosure was made to justify the use of Ally Bank in those filings. These misrepresentations were relied upon in court to unlawfully seize trust property held by a Private Indigenous Trust (Beit LiYehudah Ne'emanut Keren).

After seizure, critical security instruments—including lien bonds, gold/silver coins, and recorded trusts—were removed or destroyed. The law firm Aldridge Pite Haan LLP misrepresented multiple financial entities (Ally Bank, Ally Financial, Fannie Mae, Sunlight Financial) to the courts and CFPB. Champion Movers and Nutone Construction were used to facilitate removal without court authority.

Additionally, documents suggest that Liberty Mutual Insurance is being misled about lien ownership. The DMV ELT document references Ally Financial, but filings continue to falsely name Ally Bank. Retaliation and cyberattacks followed the original whistleblower's activities, including use of Stingray surveillance tools to delete cloud files.
